This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

BY-LAWS.

BY-LAWS.

I.

NAME.

This Club shall be called the University Club of Boston.

II.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Club shall consist of a President, eight Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Librarian, an Executive Committee, an Admission Committee, an Art and Library Committee, and an Auditing Committee. All of the above officers, except the Executive Committee and Admission Committee, both of which shall be chosen as hereinafter provided, shall be elected at the annual meeting each year by ballot, and shall serve for one year, and until their successors shall have been elected and shall have accepted office.

III.

PRESIDENT.

The President, or in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents in the order of their election, shall preside at the meetings of the Club. If the President and all the Vice-Presidents shall be absent, a chairman shall be chosen by vote. The President shall with the Treasurer sign all written contracts and obligations, unless otherwise provided by special vote of the Executive Committee or of the Club.

IV.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall give notice as hereinafter provided of all meetings of the Club, and shall keep a record of such meetings and of the proceedings of the Executive Committee and of the Admission Committee (of which committees he shall be ex officio a member), and of all matters of which a record shall be deemed advisable by the Club or by said committees. He shall conduct the correspondence of the Club and have charge of all the documents thereof. The records of the Secretary, except of the proceedings of the Admission Committee, shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any member of the Club. He shall notify new members of their election, keep a roll of the members of the Club, and advise the Treasurer of the election of members. He shall also be the keeper of the seal of the Club. He shall be exempt from the payment of the annual assessment, and shall be allowed a reasonable sum for clerical assistance.

V.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect all entrance fees and dues, shall attend to all disbursements, and shall have charge of the funds of the Club, under the direction of the Executive Committee, of which committee he shall be ex officio a member. He shall keep the accounts of the Club, and shall report, at any meeting of the Executive Committee to which he shall have been requested so to report, the balance of any moneys on hand and the outstanding obligations of the Club as far as practicable, and shall at the annual meeting report in full the receipts and disbursements of the previous year. His book of accounts shall at all times be open to the inspection of any member of the Executive Committee and of the Auditing Committee. His accounts shall be audited by the Auditing Committee annually, or oftener, if they so desire. The Executive Committee may authorize him to employ such assistance as it shall think proper, at the expense of the Club, in the keeping of his books and the preparing of his accounts and reports. He shall be exempt from the payment of the annual assessment.

VI.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

1. The entire management and control of the affairs of the Club, subject in all respects to such instructions and limitations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Club, shall be in the hands of the Executive Committee, except as hereinafter provided.

2. The Executive Committee shall consist of twenty members and the Secretary and Treasurer ex officiis, to be elected, with the exception of the Secretary and Treasurer, as follows: At each annual meeting of the Club hereafter there shall be elected by ballot five members to succeed those whose terms of office expire at that time, who shall hold office for four years, or until the fourth annual meeting after their election.

3. If any vacancy occur in the Executive Committee or in the office of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, or Librarian, or in the Art and Library Committee, in the interval between annual meetings, such vacancy may be filled temporarily by the Executive Committee, by the election of a member to hold office until the next ensuing annual meeting of the Club. At such annual meeting members shall be elected by ballot to fill all such vacancies, to hold office until the expiration of the terms for which those were elected whose positions have become vacant; and such members shall take office immediately upon election.

4. The Executive Committee shall make or authorize all necessary contracts, and shall have power to make such regulations and rules for the domestic and internal economy and success of the Club as it shall think best, and shall prescribe rules for the admission of strangers to the privileges of the Club.

5. The Executive Committee shall meet each month, except the months of July and August; and special meetings may be called by the Secretary at the request of the chairman or of five members of the committee, upon reasonable notice being given of the time and place to the other members. Seven members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

6. The Executive Committee shall also at its monthly meeting in November in each year appoint a committee of five members of the Club, not members of the Executive Committee or of the Admission Committee, to be called the Nominating Committee, whose duty it shall be to select, to notify the Secretary of the Club, and to post in a conspicuous place in the Club-house, at least ten days before the annual meeting, the name of a candidate for each office to be filled at the ensuing annual election. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to have printed ballots prepared for the annual meeting containing the names selected by the Nominating Committee for the various offices to be filled.

7. The Executive Committee shall appoint a House Committee, to consist of three members, to be a standing committee for the current year, and such other committees as it may think best for the purposes of the Club. The names of the members composing these committees shall be posted immediately after election. It shall be the duty of the House Committee to manage the Club-house, to regulate prices, to order purchases, to audit bills, to receive and answer complaints, and to appoint and dismiss all employees, subject, however, in all instances, to the control of the Executive Committee. The House Committee shall meet at least once a week.

8. No member of the Club who shall have served on the Executive Committee for four successive years shall be eligible again until at least one year after the expiration of his previous term of office.

9. The Executive Committee shall submit to the Club at each annual meeting thereof a general report of the affairs of the Club, with an estimate for the ensuing year, which shall be printed and distributed to members after the annual meeting.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Auditing Committee, which shall consist of three members, shall audit the accounts of the Treasurer annually, or oftener if it so desires, and report to the Executive Committee the accounts audited and allowed since any previous report.

VIII.

ADMISSION COMMITTEE.

1. There shall be an Admission Committee, to consist of twenty members and the Secretary ex officio, to be elected, with the exception of the Secretary, as follows: At each annual meeting of the Club hereafter there shall be elected by ballot five members to succeed those whose terms of office expire at that time. They shall hold office for four years or until the fourth annual meeting after their election.

2. If any vacancy occur in the Admission Committee in the interval between annual meetings, such vacancy may be filled temporarily by the committee by the election of members to hold office until the next ensuing annual meeting of the Club. At such annual meeting members shall be elected by ballot to fill all such vacancies, to hold office until the expiration of the terms for which those were elected whose positions have become vacant.

3. No member of the Executive Committee shall be a member of the Admission Committee. The names of the Admission Committee shall remain posted in a conspicuous place in the Club-house.

4. The names, residence, college or place of instruction, and date of degree of every person proposed for membership, resident or non-resident, with the names of the members proposing and seconding, shall be posted by the Secretary in a conspicuous place in the Club-house for at least two weeks prior to a meeting of the Admission Committee. The matter shall then be referred to the Admission Committee. It shall be the duty of the committee, after careful consideration and examination, to vote upon each name separately and by ballot. Seven members shall constitute a quorum, and two negative votes shall act as a rejection of a candidate. The proceedings of the committee shall be secret and confidential. The names of new members elected shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the Club-house.

IX.

ART AND LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

There shall be an Art and Library Committee, consisting of four members and the Secretary and Librarian ex officiis, who shall be elected at each annual meeting by ballot. They shall have the entire control of the purchase of books, — excepting periodicals and newspapers, — pictures and works of art, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee; and no book, picture, or work of art shall be deposited in the Club-house without their approval.

MEETINGS.

1. The annual meeting of the Club shall be held on the final Saturday of January of each year, for the choice of such officers and committees as the By-laws provide for, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

2. Special meetings shall be called whenever the Executive Committee shall think it expedient, or whenever twenty-five members of the Club shall request in writing the Executive Committee to do so; and notice of all meetings, stating the object for which they are called, shall be posted in the Club-house, and sent to all resident members by mail to their last known address, at least ten days before the time of meeting. Twenty-five members of the Club present at any meeting duly called and held shall constitute a quorum.

XI.

MEMBERSHIP.

1. Any person shall be eligible to membership in the Club who shall have reached the age of twenty-one years, and shall have received from a university or college, which shall be approved by the Admission Committee, a degree, to obtain which in regular course at least three years' residence and study are now required, or who shall have received an honorary degree from such university or college, or who shall have graduated at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology or at the United States Military Academy or at the United States Naval Academy, provided that, in the case of the holder of an honorary degree, the candidate shall be distinguished in literature, art, science, or the public service.

2. The Admission Committee shall determine from what foreign universities or institutions of learning graduates shall be permitted to become members, and what degrees from foreign universities and institutions of learning shall qualify the holder for membership. The resident members shall not exceed seven hundred. The non-resident members shall not exceed five hundred.

3. For resident members the entrance fee shall be fifty dollars, and the annual dues fifty dollars.

4. Non-resident members shall pay an admission fee of twenty-five dollars and annual dues of twenty-five dollars.

5. All persons elected to membership upon joining the Club shall pay the entrance fee upon notification of their election and a proportionate part of the annual assessment for the unexpired part of the year of their election, reckoning from the first day of the month in which the election shall have taken place.

6. The annual assessment shall be due and payable on the first day of January; but any member, upon request in writing to the Treasurer, may have his assessment divided, and pay one-half on the first day of January and one-half on the first day of July.

7. Persons not residing or having a place of business within thirty miles of the City Hall of the city of Boston may be elected non-resident members; and any member who shall remove his residence and place of business to a distance of thirty miles or more from such City Hall, on written notice to the Treasurer of such removal, may thereafter become a non-resident member. Non-resident members who may change their residence or place of business to within thirty miles of such City Hall shall become resident members, and shall notify the Treasurer in writing of such change; but no change in assessments shall be made until the beginning of the year following such removal.

8. Non-resident members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club, but shall have no legal interest in the property thereof. They shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Club or to hold office.

9. Any person duly elected to membership who shall fail to pay his entrance fee and the annual assessment, or one-half thereof if divided, or a proportionate part of the assessment, as the case may be, within thirty days after notice of his election is mailed, addressed to him at the place given as his residence on the posted list of candidates, shall be considered to have declined his election, and it shall become null and void. Members who shall not have paid their assessments when due shall be notified of the fact by mail to their last known address, and the names of those not paying shall be posted in the Club-house on February 15 and on August 15, as the case may be; and at the expiration of ten days from said posting, if such dues then remain unpaid, the membership of those not paying shall cease, provided, however, that the Executive Committee may remit the penalty for any good and sufficient reason.

10. Any officer of the Army or Navy of the United States, eligible to membership in the Club, may be admitted, in the manner provided for election to membership, to the privileges of a non-resident member upon paying the annual assessment for such membership; this assessment to be remitted during any period of duty or residence outside of the New England States exceeding one year in duration.

11. The Presidents of the various Institutions of Learning in New England, whose graduates are eligible to membership in the Club, shall, while holding the office of President, be considered Honorary Members of the Club, and be entitled to all the privileges of non-resident members, without the payment of any entrance fee or annual assessment.

12. A resident member intending to be absent from the New England States for a year or more, and notifying the Secretary in writing to that effect, shall be liable for the fees of a non-resident member only during such absence.

13. Any member may withdraw from the Club, after the payment of all dues, by giving written notice of his resignation to the Secretary; but, unless such resignation shall be made before the first day of January of any year, the member so resigning shall be liable for the dues of that year.

14. On the resignation or death of a member, or any forfeiture of membership by a member under these By-laws, all his right and interest in the property of the Club shall cease.

15. The Executive Committee shall have full power to expel or suspend any member whose conduct shall be pronounced by a vote of two-thirds of the whole committee, at a legal meeting thereof called to consider the case, to be contrary to the welfare, interest, or character of the Club; and the vote of any member of the committee, who is to be absent from the meeting when action is proposed, may be sent to the Secretary in writing, and be cast by him in the manner such member shall direct, but no action shall be taken unless a quorum of the committee shall be actually present.

XII.

CHANGE OF BY-LAWS.

These By-laws may be altered, amended, or repealed at any annual meeting by a vote of a majority of the members present and voting, or at any special meeting by vote of two-thirds of those present and voting, a quorum in each case being present; but no alteration or amendment shall be adopted unless such alteration or amendment shall have been stated in full in the call for the meeting.
